BARLOW'S Indigo Blue

The Tried and True Wash Blue of America

IT is over fifty years since this article was discovered and introduced to the public for blueing clothes. Many attempts have been made to imitate it, but none have succeeded to equal it in quality.
It is the purest and strongest, will not spot or streak
the clothes, nor injure the finest fabric. Few articles have the endorsement of the public for half a century unless the quality merits it. This endorsement Barlow's Indigo Blue has well earned, making it the standard Blueing throughout the country.

Trade Mark is registered and we caution the trade against handling goods imitating style and appearance

FOREWORD

THE ALMANAC AND YEAR BOOK has become a household necessity for so many thousands of good Reformed Church families that it is fitting that much time and thought should be given to its compilation. We have aimed to provide in the briefest possible form a resume of the important facts that will be of most service in our Church households and feel that the general introduction of this little book into the homes of our people will be of no little service in the upbuilding of the Kingdom. It is altogether appropriate that the 1919 Almanac should have the accent of Christian patriotism and that we should pay special attention to the work of the Reformed Church in helping to win the great war for democracy and justice. We have a right to be proud of the part our people are taking in furthering this righteous cause, and we are confident there will be no faltering on the part of the loyal homes of the Reformed Church, but a resoluteness to make the needed sacrifice, no matter how costly, to aid in securing complete victory.

Much of the energy of our people during these war times must inevitably be given to the cause of country, but we are grateful to be able to report that in spite of this drain upon our resources most of the interests of the Church are being maintained with gratifying generosity. There is along some lines a dangerous tendency to relax the work of the Kingdom of God and "wait until after the war" to prosecute religious duties, but forward-looking people are recognizing how fatal that attitude and method would be, both for the best interests of the State and of the Church. We are summoned by the highest authority to "speed up" all the interests of the Kingdom rather than to permit them to lag in any particular, and we are to regard this not only as a religious obligation, but as a supreme patriotic duty. Let us not forget what the Commander-in-Chief of our Army and Navy has declared to be a delegation of religious leaders who asked him what they could do to help win the war. President Wilson replied: "Keep the Church at the flood-tide of spiritual power. This war cannot be won by material forces alone. We need the moral and spiritual, and the Church of Christ is the only agency that can adequately develop these." In the face of this challenge it would be arch-treason to the Flag of our country, as well as to our Divine Lord, if we permitted the work of the Church to deteriorate and retrograde in this crisis. Whatever work we have done in the past, every one of us is challenged to work harder now. Whatever sacrifices we have made hitherto should be counted as nothing in comparison with the sacrifices of the present. If in any true sense we match here at home the spirit of the splendid boys who are representing us "over there," we will succeed in making this country a far greater and more glorious land to welcome our "conquering heroes" when they come back home.

It is a delight to present in this issue of our YEAR BOOK the pictures of our National Service Commission and of the Chaplains and Y. M. C. A. workers from our ranks, in so far as these could be secured. And it is with solemn pride that we present, also, the pictures of a number of our martyred heroes, some of those, from the splendid flower of our young manhood, who have paid "the last full measure of devotion" in this great struggle for freedom.

Attention should be called, also, in this Foreword to the loss sustained by our Board and by the readers of the Almanac, during 1918, in the death of Rev. John H. Bomberger, D.D., and Rev. Prof. A. T. G. Apple, two splendid servants of the Church, Christian gentlemen of the best type, who contributed so largely toward the value of this ALMANAC AND YEAR BOOK for many years. We shall greatly miss their active and inspiring ministry and can only hope that the departments so long in their charge may continue to prove helpful to our many readers.

We send out this little volume in this serious time with the hope that 1919 may bring to us, if possible, complete victory in the war of nations, and unprecedented triumphs in the Church of God.

RELIGIOUS LITERATURE

It has been well said that "morality, piety and efficiency wait on Christian information and understanding." Very little service, and that of an imperfect sort, is to be expected from people whose knowledge of Christian principles and activities is slight. The way to get better officials and members for the Christian Church is to teach them the thoughts and the business of Christ. This can be done not only from the pulpit, but by means of the Church paper. There are only too many members of the household, who do not attend regularly the services of the sanctuary, but in an attractive religious journal we have a means of putting the pulpit into the homes of the people, and it was one of our most wide-awake pastors who said, "A good religious newspaper is about the best thing, next to the Bible, that we have to stimulate the work of the Christian Church."

This war has taught us the value of propaganda, both for good and evil. When put to base uses, it can succeed in poisoning individuals and nations. When used for good ends, it can arouse the enthusiasm which guarantees success. We are coming to see more and more that the Church paper in the home makes for the upbuilding of the Kingdom of God in a remarkable degree, and that pastors, by wise and tactful methods, can make the people realize that it is not "more than they can afford" to invest three or four cents a week in order to discover what is being done and what ought to be done in the Church of Christ throughout the world. Those who have formed the splendid habit of reading good religious literature realize that they simply cannot afford to do without a Church paper, which brings them the information they need and the inspiration so essential to the proper development of the Christian life.

This ALMANAC AND YEAR BOOK is published jointly by the Publication and Sunday School Board of General Synod, and the Central Publishing House. These two interests publish and assume, respectively, the financial support of the REFORMED CHURCH MESSENGER and THE CHRISTIAN WORLD. The former is the official organ of the Eastern, Pittsburgh and Potomac Synods; the latter of the Ohio Synod. By the joint action of the General Board, Ohio Synod, and the Central Publishing House, plans are under way to unite these two papers early in 1919 and have one organ for a united Church. If you desire the people of your congregation to be wideawake, up-to-date, devoted and generous, we believe that you will find great blessing in promoting the use of your denominational literature in the homes of the people. It will bless your own congregation, and it will bless the Church of Christ as a whole.

THE NEW HYMNAL

An outstanding event for the people of the Reformed Church in 1919 will undoubtedly be the publication of the new Hymnal. This splendid volume, prepared by a joint committee of the Reformed Church in America and the Reformed Church in the United States, which has met with such great approbation on the part of all who have studied its contents, is likely to be on sale, unless unforeseen contingencies arise in these war times, very early in the new year. We believe that it will find wide acceptance among our people and that hundreds of our congregations will take advantage of the opportunity to secure this collection of the great hymns of the Church which will so much more adequately meet the needs of these new times.

THE UNITED MISSIONARY AND STEWARDSHIP COMMITTEE

Near the close of the year 1917 General Synod's United Missionary and Stewardship Committee adopted a definite policy and program of work for the triennium. The work since then has been on a very definite basis and the entire Church has been united in carrying it forward. At the meetings of the Classes in the spring of 1918 there was unqualified support of the Missionary and Stewardship Committees of each Classis and all the work which is carried forward by General Synod's Committee.

The most apparent evidence of progress during the year is in the activities of the Classical Committees. Several years ago only about half of the Classes had committees and some of them were not active. There are now committees in fifty-five of the sixty-one Classes, the only exceptions being the Hungarian Classis, one Classis in Southwest Synod, and four Classes of the Synod of the Northwest. The committees in a few of the Classes are not nearly so active as they should be, but the large majority are vigorously prosecuting their work. These Classical Committees are to be most highly commended, for without them the great work of the denomination could not be done nearly so effectively as it has been in the past year.

Meetings of the chairmen of the Classical Committees have been held several times by Synods. These meetings have resulted in passing on plans of the United Missionary and Stewardship Committee and the most successful plans of the Classical Committees to all of the workers throughout the Church. In September, 1918, a meeting was held of Classical Chairmen from all of the Synods with the United Missionary and Stewardship Committee; the great results from this meeting will be of lasting benefit to all of the missionary and benevolent work of the Reformed Church.

As the outcome of many conferences and of the successful work done in many Classes the following has been adopted as a statement or program of work of Classical Committees:

"Stimulates in all the congregations the development of the missionary spirit, and assists them in the raising of their benevolent moneys, the full apportionment as a minimum.

"Assists the pastors, consistories, and congregational Missionary and Stewardship Committees, in devising and installing better financial methods.

"Urges appointment of congregational Missionary and Stewardship Committees, and assists them in their work.

"Requests special meeting of Classis each year, early in the fall, to discuss special report of this Committee.

"Holds special conferences with congregational Missionary and Stewardship Committees, members of consistories, and others.

"Visits consistories and congregations.

"Advocates an annual exchange of pulpits to present missions and stewardship, the Every-Member Canvass, etc.

"Publishes leaflets, financial statements, and other literature, and sends circular letters to pastors and consistories."

The United Missionary and Stewardship Committee determined to do every thing possible to secure the entire apportionment each year of the triennium and to give especial attention to this during the first year. It is encouraging to note that the Board of Foreign Missions and the Board of Home Missions secured about $25,000 more for each cause on the apportionment than in any previous year. The receipts of the Board of Foreign Missions for the year June 1, 1917, to May 31, 1918, were $132,491.37. The Board of Home Missions of General Synod received from the six Synods $127,665, while the Northwest, Central and Southwest Synods contributed for Home Missions on apportionment the amount of $25,793.82, making the total amount of $153,458.82 received for Home Missions on apportionment during the Classical year. For Home and Foreign Missions Interior Synod paid 97 per cent. of its apportionment, Pittsburgh Synod 95 per cent., Ohio Synod 84 per cent., Potomac Synod 58 per cent. and Eastern Synod 58 per cent.

The Classes at their meetings in 1918 were enthusiastic in their efforts to secure the full apportionment during the next year. Every Classis in the five English Synods, with a single exception, adopted the new apportionment of General Synod, 80 cents per communicant member for Home Missions, 80 cents for Foreign Missions and 10 cents for Ministerial Relief. The entire Church should rally to the support of the Classes and their committees and raise this apportionment in full this year.

The success of the Every-Member Canvass as a method of financing the congregation and its benevolent work has had additional proof during the last year and about 150 congregations adopted the method and made the Canvass for the first time. We are soon reaching the time when a congregation that does not conduct an Annual Every-Member Canvass and use the double envelope will be an exception, and probably be one of the congregations unable to finance its work successfully While continuing all of the other work already referred to, the United Missionary and Stewardship Committee will place special stress upon the promotion of Stewardship this year. Our people should be led to see that the highest type of Christian life and experience is that of the Christian who recognizes that all that he has and is is a trust, to be administered for our Lord and on behalf of His Kingdom. Definite plans for promoting Stewardship have been outlined for the work in the Classes and in the congregations.

During the third year of the triennium an effort will be made greatly to increase the number of congregations whose standard is "As much for Others as for Ourselves." The number of such congregations in the Reformed Church had increased to 23 in 1915, and was 28 in 1916. We are glad to report that there were 31 of these congregations in 1917.

When the United Missionary and Stewardship Committee was created by the General Synod in 1914 one of its duties was defined to be, "A Financial Bureau for Consultation without Charge by Ministers, Laymen and Congregations of the Church." During the first three years the Committee was so used by many throughout the Church, but during the last year it had very many such calls made upon it, and it is becoming a clearinghouse from which can be secured help and information of all kinds regarding financial matters.

The address of the Committee is, The United Missionary and Stewardship Committee, 302 Reformed Church Building, 15th and Race Streets, Philadelphia, Pa.

HOME MISSIONS

The Board of Home Missions is conducting its work under different departments.

I. General. This department includes the Missions and Missionaries which the Board is supporting, either in part or in whole. The monthly payroll for the Board's appropriation to the Missionaries amounts to $10,000. This money is provided for by the Church through the apportionment. The full apportionment is $250,000 annually. If this entire amount were paid by the Church, the Board could greatly enlarge its present work.

II. Church-building. This is under the direct supervision of Mr. J. S. Wise, who also serves as Treasurer of the Board. This Department concerns itself with the raising of Church-building Funds of $500 or more each, and the investment of the money in the erection of church buildings for the Missions. During the last year the following churches were assisted by the Board in the erection of church edifices: Grafton Avenue Church, Dayton, Ohio; Avon Street Church, Akron, Ohio; Grace Church, Detroit, Mich.; First Church, Gary, Ind.; First Church, Charlotte, N. C.; Church at Winston-Salem, N. C.; St. Paul's Church, East Allentown, Penna.; St. John's Church, Bethlehem, Penna.; and the Jewish Mission at Brooklyn, N. Y.

III. Immigration. This department is in charge of Supt. D. A. Souders, D.D. This includes work among the Hungarians and Bohemians in this country. We have at present fifteen Hungarian Missions, and two Bohemian Missions. There are four deaconesses employed in our Hungarian Churches. The Board is also doing extensive work among the Japanese in San Francisco, and among the Jews in Brooklyn, N. Y. It is likewise supporting a Harbor Mission on Ellis Island, N. Y.

IV. Department of the East. This is in charge of Supt. James M. Mullan, who is looking after the detailed work of the Missions within the bounds of the Eastern, Potomac and Pittsburgh Synods.

V. Department of the West. This is in charge of Supt. John C. Horning, and covers the territory of the Ohio Synod, and the Synod of the Interior.

The Board is likewise carrying forward the work of Evangelism through a separate committee of which Dr. E. S. Bromer is the Chairman, and also the work of Social Service through a committee of which Dr. William C. Schaeffer is the Chairman.

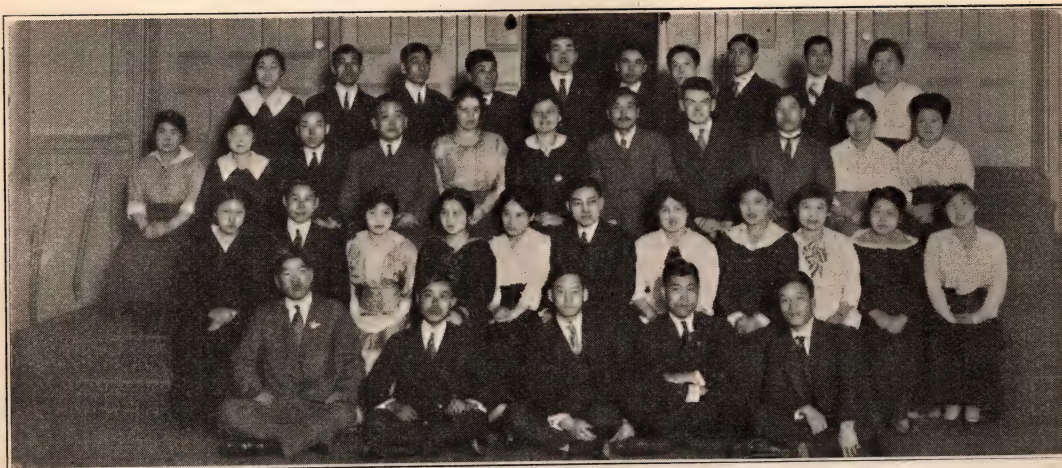

New Problems

The present world situation and the part which America has come to play in it, brings many pressing and perplexing problems to the Church. Applied Christianity is the only remedy that can right the social, industrial and moral wrongs of a people. The work of Home Missions means the task of christianizing Christendom. This involves more than the founding and fostering of new Churches. It implies the application of the principles of Jesus Christ to all relations of life in their individual and social expressions. The task of Home Missions, therefore, has greatly enlarged within recent years. The war-time industries which affect approximately one hundred cities in America are precipitating new problems upon the Board of Home Missions. These industrial centers are attracting large masses of people from other sections of the country. The Church must care for the physical as well as the spiritual needs of these people. This involves a high degree of spiritual statesmanship, and of true consecration to the best interests of humanity.

Americanization

The problem of Americanization presses with peculiar force. There are in this country, approximately, thirty million people who are either foreign born or the children of foreign born parents. These need to be assimilated into our American life. The immigrant in our midst, especially the children, must be taught the English Language and be made acquainted with American ideals, life and customs.

The negro is precipitating a Home Mission problem upon the Churches of the North. Vast numbers are being imported from the South-land. Philadelphia alone expects two hundred thousand negroes during the current year. The principles of democracy for which we are fighting demand the recognition of equal rights on the part of all the different races in America.

Home Mission Day

The annual Home Mission Day is observed on the second Sunday in November. This furnishes congregations and Sunday Schools the opportunity to bring before their people the needs as well as the work of the Board of Home Missions. For several years the offerings on this day have been devoted to the Missions within the bounds of the Synod of the Interior.

Grateful Acknowledgment

The Board of Home Missions gratefully acknowledges the help which it receives from the Woman's Missionary Society of the General Synod. This organization is annually contributing towards the general work of the Board and also furnishes a number of Church-building Funds. It is likewise assisting in the support of the deaconesses among the Hungarians, as well as along other lines of Home Mission Work.

FOREIGN MISSIONS

Foreign Mission Day comes on Sunday, February 9th, 1919. The offerings in congregations and Sunday Schools will be for the evangelistic work in Japan and China.

Christian Stewardship is being emphasized in the Reformed Church as never before. A Christian cannot administer his Stewardship in any better way than by contributing liberally to the cause of Foreign Missions.

From January 27th to March 20th, 1918, our Mission in China underwent the horrors of war. Our missionaries were prepared and acted the part of the Good Samaritan. 3,000 Chinese women and children sought refuge in our Compound at Lakeside during the latter part of January. On March 25th, 10,000 found refuge in the temporary sheds on the Yochow Compound and were fed. There is wide-spread readiness to hear the Gospel.

In order to rebuild the Main Street Chapel and the Day School in Yochow City, the Dining Hall and Gymnasium at Lakeside, to pay for the care of the wounded soldiers in the hospital, the enforced flight of our missionaries to Kuling, and many other expenses, not to speak of the alarming loss by exchange, the Board of Foreign Missions must receive at least $50,000.

The second Recitation Hall of the Miyagi Girls' School was dedicated on May 28, 1918. It is brick veneer frame, 90 ft. long and 45 ft. wide, and two and a half stories high. It cost $19,000, which was contributed by the Woman's Missionary Society of General Synod. The Principal, Dr. Allen K. Faust, believes that the addition of this new building to the equipment of the School will mark the beginning of a new epoch in the history of the institution. It is another monument of the loyalty of our devoted womanhood.

"Tohoku, the Scotland of Japan," by Dr. Christopher Noss, of our Japan Mission, is being widely used as a Mission Study book and for general reading. The noted author, William Elliot Griffis, writes: "It is a wonderful book. I do not know of any volume in the whole range of the library of books on Japan written by foreigners that presents such clear, intimate, penetrating and conclusive views of the northern part of Japan's main island." The price is 60 cents in cloth and 40 cents in paper binding.

"Miss Wistaria at Home," by Mrs. Jesse H. String, is a fascinating book for Mission Bands, Junior Endeavor Societies, and Primary Sunday Schools. It will interest the young people in our work for the girls and young people of Japan. Price, 50c in cloth.

The late Dr. John H. Bomberger was loyally devoted to the cause of Foreign Missions. He started and fostered the first Christian Endeavor Missionary Fund many years ago. The Board of Foreign Missions has designated the Christian Endeavor residence at Sendai, Japan, as The Bomberger Memorial Christian Endeavor Residence, and requests the friends of Dr. Bomberger, and the Young People's Societies, which have already contributed $1500, to contribute the full amount of the cost of the lot and building, which is $5500.

During the classical year, June 1, 1917, to May 31, 1918, the receipts for Foreign Missions on the Apportionment were $132,315.37, and from Specials, $85,826.00, making a total of $218,141.37. The expenses of the classical year were $236,480.46.

There is a conflict going on in Japan, China, India and Africa of which one hears but little amid the din of battles in Europe. The Church of Jesus Christ is waging a mightier warfare than the armies of all the nations. The only remedy for a world war is a world salvation, which Foreign Missions is publishing as the Gospel of all mankind.

THE PUBLICATION AND SUNDAY-SCHOOL BOARD

Some Important Sunday-School News Items of the Year

Grants of Literature amounting to $866.35 were made by the Publication and Sunday School Board to Mission Sunday Schools and other schools needing financial help. A special gift of $400 annually is set apart for Sunday School mission work in the Northwest. Summer Weekday Religious Schools among the immigrants are supported regularly.

Teacher Training Classes are now being conducted by the Hungarians and Bohemians.

The Department Graded Lessons can now be obtained from the Business Department, up to the Seniors (ages 15, 16 and 17) inclusive.

1,615 Participating Share Certificates and 625 School Reformation Endowment Certificates were issued in commemoration of the 400th Anniversary of the Reformation.

Total receipts for Children's Endowment Fund net $24,822.88. General Synod authorized the completion of this fund, which is set at $100,000, and is intended for the enlargement of the Sunday School Educational and Missionary work of the Reformed Church. Gifts from schools which have not yet contributed, from individuals, and in the form of bequests, should be sent to Rufus W. Miller, 15th and Race Streets, Philadelphia, Pa.

The past year was the banner year in the gifts on Children's Day, by our Sunday Schools, for Sunday School Educational and Missionary work. $6,946.09 were received. Gradually our schools are responding to General Synod's request that the annual giving for this purpose be $15,000. The increasing demands made on the Board require it.

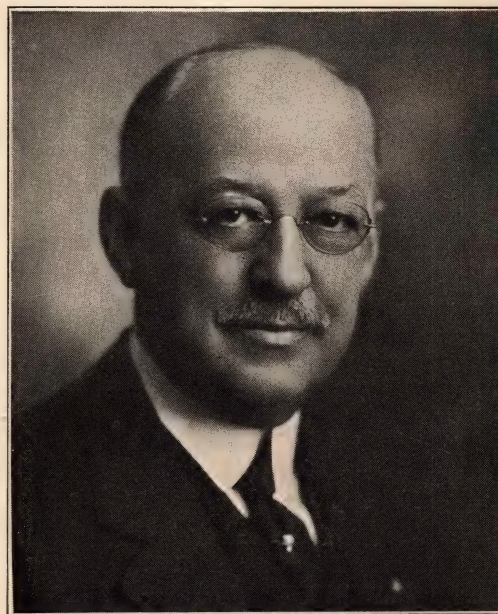

During the past year our schools in several of the large cities distinguished themselves by their interest in community efforts along Sunday School lines. At Buffalo, in January, the Reformed Sunday Schools furnished the largest attendance—twice their expected quota—at the Efficiency Institute conducted under the auspices of the International S. S. Institute.

Our Cleveland Reformed Sunday Schools in March furnished 25 per cent of the more than 3000 students enrolled at the Interdenominational Institute conducted by the Cleveland County Association. Of these the First Reformed Sunday School, Rev. C. Hoffman, pastor, had the largest enrollment. Our Educational Superintendent, Dr. C. A. Hauser, and Mrs. J. H. String represented the Reformed Church on the faculty.

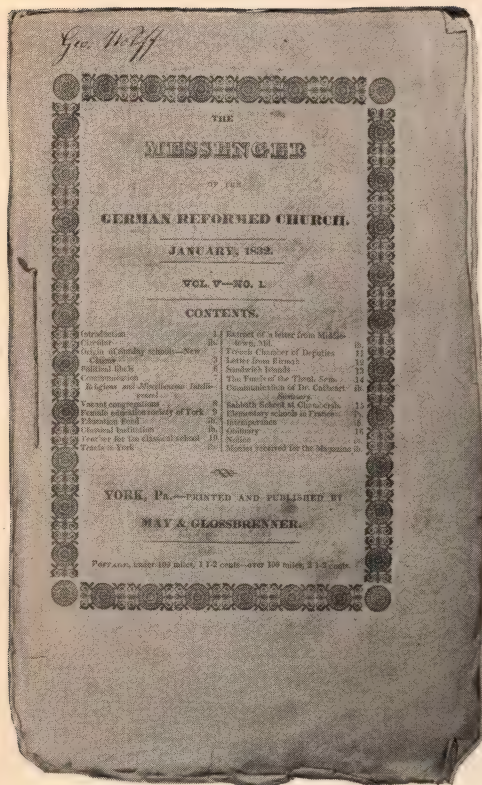

Our Sunday Schools all over the country are rendering loyal war service. Be sure to have a Service Flag and Honor Roll.

Your Publication and Sunday School Board will gladly aid your school through its literature, at your Sunday School conventions, institutes, and in otherwise solving local problems.

Mr. W. J. Frank, Akron, O., was recently appointed to fill the unexpired term of the late Dr. J. H. Bomberger in the Publication and Sunday School Board. Mr. Frank has been a member of the Reformed Church for 47 years, an elder for 43 years, connected with the Reformed Sunday School for 60 years, and since 1876, Superintendent of Grace Sunday School, Akron, O. For 20 years he has been a member of the Board of Regents of Heidelberg University. He is keenly interested in the general work of the denomination and his business ability, combined with his cordial nature and splendid spirit, will make him a most useful member of the Board.

(Contrasting the earliest cover in our possession with one of the current year)

During the past year our former Fieldworker, Miss Blanche A. Zieber, conducted a series of important Elementary Institutes, which met with much favor and indicate a line of Sunday School work which needs to receive special attention.

Salem Church, Dr. J. M. G. Darms, pastor, and St. Andrew, Rev. R. M. Kern, pastor, Allentown, each, for a number of years, has been conducting successful summer Weekday Religious schools.

The First Church, Milwaukee, Rev. Dr. H. C. Nott, pastor, for several years has been carrying off the banner for the best Daily Vacation Bible School in the city.

Akron, Ohio, has added the tenth school to its already fine list of energetic Sunday School dynamos.

The Southland is awake, not only to its possibilities in cotton, but is stirring its spiritual energies as well

This is evidenced by its renewed interest in Sunday School work. It is tackling its job at one of the hardest points, Teacher Training. They are talking much down there about the Sunday School Standard of Efficiency and are reaching the mark, too.

Trinity, Wilkinsburg, has the rare distinction of having the largest Teacher Training alumni list in our Church. At the last report the number hovered about the century mark. The school looks it.

The schools numbering 1000 or more are increasing in the Reformed Church. We take pleasure in paying special tribute to Dr. E. Herbruck, who, through many years of unceasing prayer and effort, saw one of these schools grow to nearly twice this size. May the enforced cessation from his labors, due to failing eyesight, be only of short duration. The Church wishes Dr. Herbruck a speedy recovery.

One of our rural churches, Rev. J. D. Hunsicker, pastor, located at Livonia, Center County, Pa., numbering only 22 attendant members, and 15 in the Cradle Roll and Home Department, has been a "Front Line School" for a number of years. Things go where the people have "a will to work."

Zion Sunday School, Reading, Pa., Rev. C. H. Gramm, pastor, has one of the most thoroughly organized schools in the denomination. Organization here means pull and push, not merely puff. There is a reason. Rev. Gramm spends every Thursday afternoon in his Sunday School office, reviewing records, reports of officers and teachers and planning for the work.

Westmoreland Classis is a banner Classis, as far as Sunday School Conventions go; Departmental Conferences, under strong leadership, constitute their strong point.

The continent-wide, simultaneous, interdenominational Teacher Training Drive, from September 15th to October 15th, under the auspices of the Sunday School Council and cooperated in by the International Sunday School Association, no doubt was the outstanding Sunday School event of the year. Our record of 4819 students enrolled in Teacher Training during the Classical Year of 1916-1917 should be doubled as a result of this effort.

Two Teacher Training Classes last year attained the rare distinction of making a grade of 100 throughout the course. These schools were: Evangelical Reformed, Covington, Kentucky, Rev. Wm. H. Miller, pastor and teacher, and the First Reformed, Cincinnati, Ohio, Rev. J. O. Vitz, pastor, Mrs. E. Weinberg, teacher. Many other high records were made.

Zion's Sunday School, York, Pa., has a well worked out plan of service activities related to its Bible teaching. In this system is included the entire work of the denomination, as well as all local and war work challenges. Nothing is left to hit or miss methods. This year, for instance, the school worked out beforehand what its pro rata share of the Children's Day Offering according to General Synod, should be; fixed the amount, planned to secure it; and in consequence raised several times the amount secured in former years and is happier than ever over the result. If all schools should follow this plan the needed $15,000 for this work, annually, would be in sight.

The Reformed Sunday Schools of Indianapolis are doing an exceptional piece of local Sunday School and young people's team work. Both the Educational and Extension or Missionary phases of the work are kept in view.

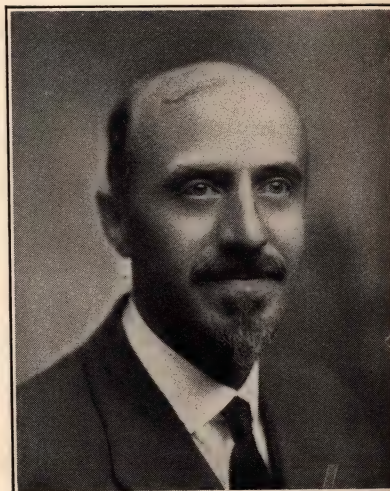

The Annual Lesson Helps for 1919, Tarbell's Guide, Peloubet's Notes, Pocket Commentaries, etc., are necessary tools for Sunday School teachers and scholars. Write to your Board for prices and suggestions.

 REV. LEE M. ERDMAN, PASTOR MISS M. SCHLEGEL, TEACHER

THE CAUSE OF THE COLLEGES

The people of the Reformed Church have a three-fold interest in their educational institutions.

In the first place, they have a personal interest in them. In these days of educated men and women, many of our people are graduates of one or more of the institutions of the Church. Time was when only the ministers, and here and there a layman, had had the advantage of college training. Nowadays more laymen than ministers are graduated from college. Thus there are men in every walk in life who are bound by strong personal ties to the colleges in which they were educated.

Our day is also one of women's colleges and of coeducational colleges in which the proportion of young women students almost equals that of young men. The influence of the college is gratefully felt not alone in the forum and in the marketplace but likewise in the home. Women of classical training and of fine literary and scientific attainments are presiding over the destinies of the race in home and Church and school. These women feel, apparently more keenly than their brothers, the tie that binds to alma mater.

Beyond the hundreds, however, who are interested in our colleges as graduates are the thousands of staunch and loyal Church members who through their own efforts have come to appreciate culture, and to enjoy the refinements of cultivated society. All of these feel a personal interest in our seats of learning both for what they are and for the good they do.

Perhaps the keenest personal interest of all is that of the rising boys and girls—the youth who in our splendid academies and in the great public high schools are getting visions of college days ahead. In few places are colleges discussed more earnestly and more critically than among the boys and girls in the preparatory schools. Here resolves are made to go to college by young persons who in similar circumstances a generation ago would never have thought such a step possible.

Secondly, our Reformed people have a denominational interest in our Church colleges—that is, they see that the Church's welfare, present and future, is wrapped up in her educational institutions. The Reformed Church in the past has not had a very deep denominational consciousness, but with the closer relations which are fast coming to prevail among religious bodies a great new emphasis is bound to be laid on our denominational life. This interest will not be sentimental or selfish but practical and altruistic. We shall all want our Church to be strong, and to react as one body among the other Churches in the combined efforts at world redemption. In this situation the educational centers of the Church are of vital importance. It is readily noted in American religious life that strong colleges make a strong Church. This is especially the case when the several institutions of the Church work in harmony and cooperation as they now do in the Reformed Church under the auspices of the Association of Schools, Colleges and Seminaries. Perhaps no more influential unifying agency has come into our Church's life than this. Under its fostering care our colleges are becoming not only stronger in material resources but richer in spiritual resources.

Thirdly, our people have a patriotic interest in our educational institutions. Who will venture to estimate what it has meant for the cause of liberty and humanity that the United States of America has had back of her for four hundred years the leavening influence of Christian colleges? More powerful in shaping American ideals than any other factor in our national life have been these nurseries of giant men whence have come the nation's leaders in Church and State.

How truly, in the present crisis, our own institutions of the Reformed Church have reacted to American tradition! Presidents, faculties and students were quick to discern the great issues of the war and stepped forth promptly at the call of their country.

Just as the Christian colleges have in the past conserved learning, propagated ideals, and engendered faith, so they will continue to do in the future. These great spiritual forces, ever characteristic of true American life, must continue to rule in this great democratic nation.

As individuals, therefore, as Churchmen and as citizens, we have a personal, denominational and patriotic interest in those fountain heads of learning and spiritual power which we proudly own as our Church colleges.

THE YOUNG PEOPLE'S DEPARTMENT

The work among the young people in the various Protestant Churches is in a chaotic state. Our denomination has above eight hundred societies, consisting of Christian Endeavor Societies, Heidelberg Leagues, Young People's Societies, Missionary Leagues, Brotherhoods, etc. Beside these are organized Sunday School Classes, and a few organized Sunday School Young People's Divisions.

Recognizing this complex condition the General Synod of Dayton (1917) authorized the establishment of a Young People's Department under the direction and authority of General Synod's Committee on Young People's Societies and the advisory assistance of the Publication and Sunday School, Home Mission and Foreign Mission Boards.

After a thorough study of the problem as it is in our denomination, particularly as related to the present war conditions and the financial difficulties of the Church at large, a working organization was effected at a meeting in Lancaster, Pa., September 10, 1918, when Rev. Edward S. Bromer, D.D., was elected Young People's Secretary for the remainder of the present triennium. The office of the new department will be in the First Reformed Church, Greensburg, Pa. All communications and remittances are to be sent to the departmental address, Box 459, Greensburg, Pa.

The general aim and policy of the department centers in the conservation and the development of the lives of our young people. It seeks to recognize the two main trends in young people's work, viz., the present Young People's Society and the organized Young People's Division of the Sunday School. A typical constitution and program of work for these two trends will be developed. Both will be recognized as Young People's organizations. The closest possible cooperation will be cultivated with the Young People's Work as related with the Publication and Sunday School and Home Mission and Foreign Mission Boards.

The financial support of the department for the triennium is based on the following plan:

1. The annual observance of Young People's Day by all societies on or near the third Sunday of October, at which an offering for the support of the department shall be given.

2. At least five, and not more than ten, annual contributions of Ten Dollars each within the bounds of each Classis, by friends of the Young People's work, secured by the Committee of Three.

3. The contributions of five men of truly denominational and interdenominational vision who will annually, during two years (1918-1919) contribute from $100 to $500 each for the larger development of the department. These five persons will be secured by General Synod's Committee.

All money received will be used for the support and the development of the department. For the present triennium the actual executive expenses will be nominal. The programs and the new educational literature and the traveling expenses will be the biggest items. It should be remembered, however, that the above given financial plan aims at the laying of solid foundations for the new department and looks forward into the coming years beyond the present triennium.

BETHANY ORPHANS' HOME Womelsdorf, Pa.

Provisions grown at, donated to, and purchased for Bethany may all be represented by the pie in this picture. The liberality of the Bethany friends determines the size of the pie and decides whether there will be pie enough for all. If they will see to it that the pie can be made large enough, the Superintendent will see to it that it will be properly shared, and the children will see to the rest. In that case, there will be pie enough for everybody and there will be no waste. There are 180 children in the Home.

ST. PAUL'S ORPHANS' HOME Greenville, Pa.

Rev. A. M. Keifer, Superintendent

During the year just closed, 114 children were under the care of this institution. They enjoyed good health, made exceptional progress in their lives, and were greatly benefited by their experience. Many others were refused admission because of lack of room. The constantly increasing number of children, seeking a share in the blessings and privileges of this Home, is a challenge to the friends of the orphans for larger giving to this sacred work. We have no doubt at all of their response.

"Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these . . . ye have done it unto me."

NAZARETH ORPHANS' HOME

Crescent, N. C.

Rev. W. B. Werner, Superintendent

This Home is now twelve years of age and has already rendered a fine service. They have an excellent dormitory for the boys, which has all modern improvements with the exception of steam heat and electric lights. These they need very badly, both for protection from fire and for convenience. Other improvements, such as modern laundry machinery and better farm implements are likewise greatly needed. We urgently appeal to the Church at large to provide the funds for these essential improvements. We know that the Orphans' Homes occupy a warm spot in the hearts of our Reformed Church people and Nazareth Home is entitled to a share in their interest and affection.

HOFFMAN ORPHANAGE

Littlestown, Pa.

Rev. Andrew H. Smith, Superintendent

When the Synod of the Potomac accepted the George W. Hoffman bequest in 1909, many of its members understood that if, after ten years' trial, it was proven that there was no necessity for another orphanage in our Church, the property would be used for other purposes. Charter was obtained January, 1910, and the Home opened. Buildings were erected and provision made for forty-six children. For several years they have been crowded. Applications from pastors and consistories in behalf of forty more orphans have come from May 1, 1917, to August 1, 1918. Only nine of these could be admitted. The necessity for the existence and support of this Orphanage is not only an established fact but it is urgent. The continuance of the war not only increases the cost of maintaining the Home but makes the necessity for it more acute. The thirty-one orphans we had to deny admission would more than fill the cottage we now have. Owing to the abnormal condition of things, we hesitate to challenge our people to contribute now towards another cottage, but abnormal conditions demand enlarged efforts and generous sacrifices. Notwithstanding the unusual demands upon the Treasurer, he has paid $5,500 on the Home's indebtedness from January to April, 1918. The lean months of May to December will again increase the debt. This is due to the fact that the bulk of the support is given by the Churches at Christmas. We must depend upon our friends who see and know our needs to support the Orphans' Home, and we believe that our confidence in them is well founded.

FORT WAYNE ORPHANS' HOME Fort Wayne, Ind.

Rev. John F. Winter, Superintendent

The past year was a good one at this institution for orphans and homeless children. The new building, the refectory, is completed and was dedicated November 4, 1917. The industrial work has been expanded and the schools are entering upon a new stage of development and usefulness. There is ample opportunity to exercise mind and body so as to develop the boys and girls into strong and helpful men and women.

THREE MAIN BUILDINGS, FT. WAYNE ORPHANS' HOME, FORT WAYNE, IND.

CHRISTMAS MORNING—HOFFMAN ORPHANAGE, LITTLESTOWN, PA.

There are now fifty-one boys and thirty-nine girls in the Home. The fiscal year was closed with a deficit of $215.88. The total indebtedness is $16,500. The Home enters upon the 36th year in the history of the institution, convinced of the necessity of this work, and in the faith that the Church will continue to support it generously. We commend Fort Wayne Home anew to our Sunday Schools, congregations and friends, counting upon their prayers and gifts.

Our Reformed Church Orphanages have not been merely institutions: they have been real homes. Consecrated men and women, giving themselves up to the service of these needy children, have lived themselves lovingly into the lives of these boys and girls, and hundreds have arisen to call the housefathers and housemothers and teachers in these Homes blessed. It is a most difficult task, weighted with heavy responsibility, testing to the utmost the temper of one's religion. All honor to those who have met this test so nobly and given so generously of their heart's love to provide a truly Christian household for the deserving wards of the Church. There are but a small proportion of Christian families, if the truth be spoken, where the emphasis is so decidedly spiritual or the standards quite so high as in the Orphans' Homes of the Reformed Church. In these Homes "first things are put first;" in these Homes the family altar is not broken down but is a very vital factor in the life of every member of the household; in these Homes the Lord Jesus is really recognized and honored as Lord. Thank God for such Homes as these!

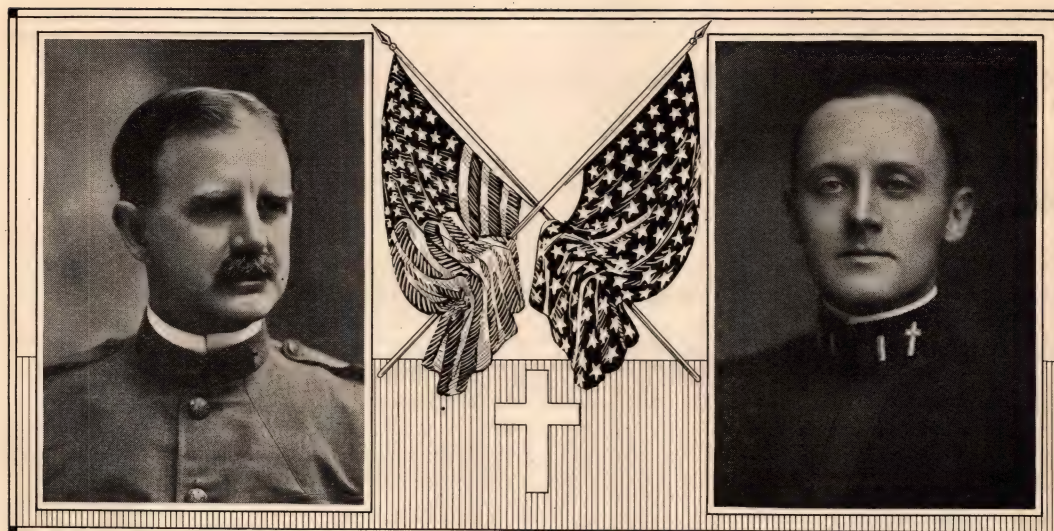

THE NATIONAL SERVICE COMMISSION OF THE REFORMED CHURCH IN THE UNITED STATES

When the General Synod, in 1908, authorized a representation in the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America by duly elected delegates to that Council, authority was given to the delegates to cooperate with the Council in such activities as were generally promoted. The omission of a movement in behalf of the war work on the part of our Church by the higher judicatories of the denomination made it necessary for the delegates to the Federal Council to make use of the authority deputed to them by the General Synod. The National Service Commission was accordingly organized by the following delegates on January 25, 1918, to cooperate with the General War-Time Commission of the Churches of the Federal Council in war work in behalf of our own Church: Charles E. Schaeffer, D. D., H. H. Apple, D. D., LL.D., H. J. Christman, D. D., Rufus W. Miller, D. D., J. M. G. Darms, D. D., W. Stuart Cramer, Philip Vollmer, D. D., Theodore F. Herman, D. D., E. H. Marcus, and Frank Brown. Rev. Charles E. Schaeffer, D. D., was elected the President of the Commission, and Rev. W. Stuart Cramer the Executive Secretary and Treasurer. Rev. Mr. Cramer maintains an office in behalf of the Commission in his study in Lancaster, Pa.

The activities of the Commission are varied. The Commission has succeeded in enrolling about six thousand Soldiers and Sailors in the military service of the United States Government from the Charges of the Reformed Church. Greetings and assurances are sent by the Commission from time to time to the men enrolled. Many beautiful acknowledgments are sent to the Commission expressing appreciation of the affectionate concern of the mother Church in her boys. Ministers especially adapted to the work are sent from time to time to the Camps of the country in which large numbers of Reformed boys are found. The enrollment of the names of the boys makes it possible to communicate with them about the visits of our representatives, thus bringing Reformed ministers into personal contact with Reformed boys. These visits to the Camps are through the courtesy of the Y. M. C. A. and the Chaplains.

The Commission is supporting, at an expense of $1,200 a year, Mr. M. C. Brayman as a Community worker at Gettysburg, Pa., and Rev. Wm. F. Naefe in a similar service at Louisville, Ky.

The Commission has taken a great amount of interest in the appointment of Chaplains from the ministry of the Church, both soliciting suitable men for this important office and encouraging their cause before the Army and Navy Chaplaincy Committee of the Federal Council, located in Washington, D. C. The Chaplains have been given typewriter and communion sets and their equipment for service in the Army and a present of one hundred dollars each, with which to purchase their initial uniform. The amount of ten dollars per month is also contributed to all of the Chaplains for their personal work among the men. At this particular time the Reformed Church has twelve Chaplains in the Army and one in the Navy, to wit: Army: Revs. H. N. Bassler, R. S. Snyder, E. W. Stonebraker, A. V. Casselman, S. R. Wagner, L. V. Hetrick, G. A. Ehrgood, Emory Deitrich, Paul B. Rupp, J. M. Newgard, J. R. Hahn and A. M. Billman. Navy: Herbert Dumstrey.

Ten applications from our ministers are now in the hands of the Adjutant General, all of whom will eventually go to the Chaplaincy Training School at Louisville, Ky.

The Commission cooperates with the General War-Time Commission of the Churches, through representation on its Executive Committee by Rev. W. Stuart Cramer. Two hundred dollars were given by the Commission to the General War-Time Commission.

The Commission is active also in stimulating the responsibility of the Churches at home in behalf of the boys who have gone forth as soldiers and sailors, endeavoring thereby to "keep the home fires burning" in their behalf. Letters of comfort are written to the parents of those boys who fall in the service.

The financial support of the Commission has been purely voluntary. About six thousand dollars has been offered without personal solicitation for this work. This amount is insufficient for the larger program that is reasonably expected of the Reformed Church in behalf of war work. A budget of not less than $25,000 will be proposed to the denomination for next year's activities.

The National Service Commission has, through the various forms of activity so briefly outlined above, made the Reformed Church at large feel that she is endeavoring, at least in a small way, to fulfill her responsibilities that arise in the presence of the great war crisis. Those who have a conscience in behalf of this subject appreciate the great service that the Commission is rendering to the Church. Besides this the Commission has put the Reformed Church side by side with the other denominations of the Nation in which extensive service is rendered for the spiritual and moral welfare of the boys. Denominations are spending all the way from five thousand to a million dollars each in this form of Christian activity.

OUR BOYS IN THE FRONT LINE TRENCHES

A Message from Chaplain Harry Nelson Bassler

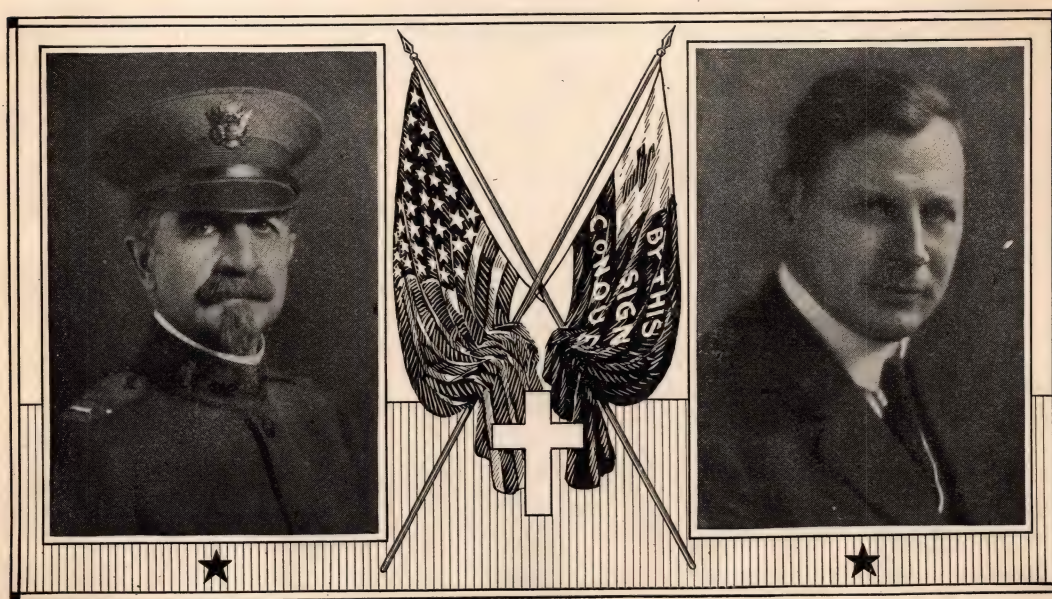

In all my experience with men in the danger zone I seldom meet one who is profane, no matter what his habit has been in the past, for many a soldier after his first advance has changed his views of what is right and what is wrong and I firmly believe that when these men return to the good old U. S. A. they will bring with them a strength of character and a conception of true manhood that they did not have when they boarded the transports for the trip across the sea.

One not only ages quickly on the field of battle but lasting decisions are made. When a man has gone forward two or three days without sleep, with but one meal, and has passed through the long hours of the dark nights, lighted only by the flare of enemy guns, he has learned lessons not taught in the ordinary walks of life—and they are lessons that are not easily forgotten. A few nights ago a young First Lieutenant crawled into his shack and for the first time knelt to pray. The poor boy had run into a bit of mustard gas and the Boche shells had dropped all around him but he had come through with his command all right. When he rose from his knees and crept into his blankets he said, "I tell you, Captain, if ever a man appreciates what it means to pray he does so here."

A chaplain has no trouble to get a congregation on Sunday no matter what conditions may be, and when the boys unite with him in the Lord's Prayer they are not glancing around or praying in a half-hearted manner—no, they PRAY—every one of them, be he Protestant, Catholic or Jew, and their hearts and souls are in the prayer.

The facing of death at the front has been clearing the minds of many young men of the snares and delusions of false religions that have obscured their spiritual vision and have kept them from a saving knowledge of God and His Christ.

CHAPLAIN

Those awful hours have swept away the barriers that have held men apart from their fellows and have made them live narrow, selfish lives. They have given a deeper meaning to the value of life; and the virtues of reverence, temperance, moderation, kindness, helpfulness and unselfishness are among those that shine brightly in the lives of the men who have been to the front.

I believe that when the young men who have taken part in the war come back home they will take a hand in the affairs of the Church and the nation that will be surprising to many, for the lessons of the war will be lasting ones—the cause for which a man risks his life and all that he holds dear is not one to be easily forgotten—and our young soldiers will stand for the ideals for which they have fought.

Many will have “gone West,” for France will be the last resting-place for many of our brave sons. But we shall ever cherish their memory, and feel that their bravery and unselfish sacrifice has made the world a far better place in which to live. Do not worry about the men at the front, but pray that every one may be kept faithful and true and that the great evil that has brought on this conflict and bloodshed may be swept away, and that the peace of God that passeth understanding may abide in the world forever and ever.

Somewhere in France, September 5, 1918.

Confirm thy soul in self-control, thy liberty in law!

And crown thy good with brotherhood,

EDUCATIONAL AND PATRIOTIC CAMPAIGN

Every Church is recognizing the necessity for an extraordinary program in such an extraordinary time as we are passing through. The Publication and Sunday School Board, the authorized agency for the supervision and promotion of religious education, has wisely issued a challenge for an Educational and Patriotic Campaign for home, country, and brotherhood, which, if carried out, will certainly keep our "home fires burning" brightly. This program calls for emphasis upon the following five points.

1. The Service of Worship and Preaching. It is high time that we strike the note of the importance of regularity in attendance at the services of the Sanctuary, and urge our membership not only to come themselves to the House of God but to bring others. Dr. Charles H. Spurgeon said, "It is the business of the preacher to fill the pulpit; it is the business of the people to fill the pews."

2. The Sunday School. It is certainly timely to attempt to increase the membership of our Sunday Schools at least 10 per cent. and to intensify the study of the Bible. The strategic importance of the Sunday School will loom larger than ever in the days ahead in view of what this war has taught us.

3. The Family Altar. To make our homes centers of religion, to spiritualize the family life of our people—this is certainly a fundamental duty if we want to make democracy safe. The best way to improve both Church and State is to make better homes in which shall be found more religion, more true affection, more real discipline, better literature and higher ideals.

4. The Church Paper. To increase its circulation, to read and discuss its articles, to appreciate how essential it is to the propagation of our religion, these are duties which we believe will appeal with growing force to every thoughtful mind today and in the days following the war.

5. The Prayer Meeting. The mighty power of prayer in the upbuilding of individual character and in the promotion of real brotherhood can scarcely be overestimated. It is here that we have the spiritual thermometer of our Churches.

OUR FALLEN HEROES

One cannot look at the faces of these splendid young men, sons of the Reformed Church who have given their lives for God and country, without deep emotion. But our sincere sorrow is mingled with the solemn joy and pride that they have given themselves so gladly for a great cause. Since this ALMANAC went to press many others have been added to this martyr army of the gold stars, but the pictures we have received in time represent practically every section of the Reformed Church and are in themselves more eloquent than any words that could be written.

THE GREAT ADVENTURE

Only those are fit to live who do not fear to die; and none are fit to die who have shrunk from the joy of life and its duty. Both life and death are parts of the same Great Adventure. Never yet was worthy adventure worthily carried through by the man who put his personal safety first. Therefore it is that the man who is not willing to die, and the woman who is not willing to send her man to die, in a war for a great cause, are not worthy to live. In America today all our people are summoned to service and sacrifice. But all of us who give service, and stand ready for sacrifice, are the torch-bearers. The torches whose flames are brightest are borne by the gallant men at the front and by the gallant women whose husbands and lovers, sons and brothers, high of soul, are facing their fate on the shell-shattered earth. These are they who have dared the Great Adventure.—
Theodore Roosevelt.

OUR ROLL OF HONOR

THE LITTLE FLAG ON OUR HOUSE

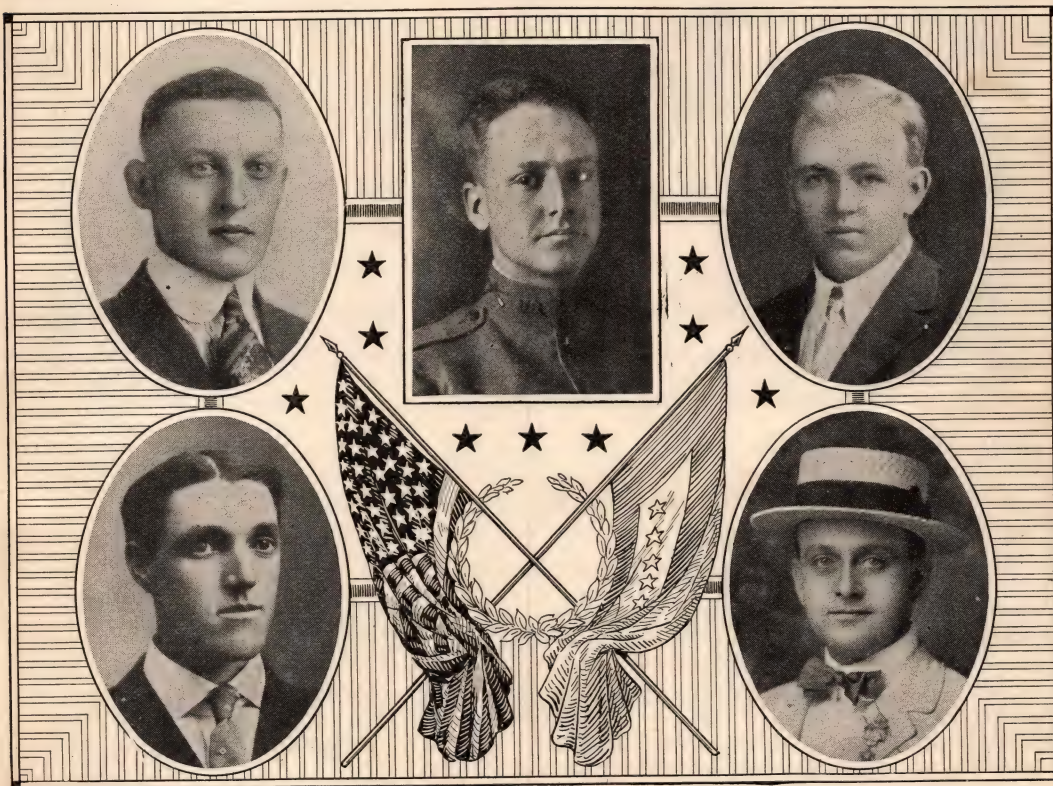

By William Curtis Demorest

The little flag on our house
Is floating all the day
Beside the great big Stars and Stripes;
You can almost hear it say
To all the folks in our street,
As the breezes make it dance:
"Look up and see my one blue star—
We've got a boy in France!"

The little flag on our house,
It floats sometimes at night,
And you can see it 'way up there

When the street lamp shines just right.
And sometimes, 'long towards morning,
When the cop comes by, perchance
It signals with its one blue star:
"We've got a boy in France!"

The little flag on our house
Will wave, and wave, and wave
Until our boy comes home again,
Or finds in France his grave.
Nay—tho' its blue star turn to gold,
Because of War's grim chance,
It still shall wave to say: *"Thank God!
We've got a boy in France!"*

FROM COLLEGE TO THE TRENCHES

Many of our splendid young men who have paid "the last full measure of devotion" on the battlefield in these recent days were the most promising among the students in our colleges and Theological Seminaries. One cannot think of this great loss without deep emotion, and several of the heart-cries which have been called forth by the splendid sacrificial spirit of the young manhood of our day are likely to become immortal. Such are the lovely lines entitled, "Spires of Oxford," by W. M. Letts, and the pathetic message of Joyce Kilmer, who himself was killed in action in France. These gems of poetry are given here for your remembrance:

"Spires of Oxford"

I saw the spires of Oxford
As I was passing by,
The gray spires of Oxford
Against a pearl-gray sky.
My heart was with the Oxford men
Who went abroad to die.

The years go fast in Oxford,
The golden years and gay,
The hoary colleges look down
On careless boys at play.
But when the bugle sounded war
They put their games away.

OUR ROLL OF HONOR

God rest you, happy gentlemen,
Who laid your good lives down,
Who took the khaki and the gun
Instead of cap and gown.
God bring you to a fairer place
Than even Oxford town!

"For God and Country"

They have taken their youth and mirth away from the study and playing-ground
To a new school in an alien land beneath an alien sky;

Out in the smoke and roar of the fight their lessons
and games are found,
And they who were learning how to live are learning how to die.

And after the golden day has come and the war is at an end,

A slab of bronze on the chapel wall will tell of the noble dead.

And every name on that radiant list will be the name of a friend,

A name that shall through the centuries in grateful prayers be said.

And there will be ghosts in the old schools, brave ghosts with laughing eyes,

On the field with a ghostly cricket bat, by the stream with ghostly rod;

CLAYTON WORTH STARR, Mt. Hope, Julian, N. C.
Died July 18, 1918

A flame they took with strong young hands from the altar-fires of God.

OUR ROLL OF HONOR

THE FAMILY ALTAR

Have you a family altar? If not, why not? Was there ever a time when Christian families had more reason for meeting at "one common mercy seat?" The revival of old time Home Religion is the fundamental need of both the Church and Society, but it is claimed by those who have studied the subject that Bible study and prayer in the home seem to have become a lost art. And yet it is true that "as the home, so the Church, as the home, so the community; and we cannot expect either to be better than the average home composing it." The atmosphere of the average home today, we must sadly confess, it not what it ought to be and many of our boys and girls are going out from their homes without any spiritual vision. We do not need to consult social service experts or clergymen to ascertain this. Stop the policeman on the street and ask him why it is that so many of the youth of our day are going to the bad, and he will tell you in the larger number of instances it is because they do not get the proper home training. When so many of our boys are in the great war, when so many hearts are torn and bleeding, when our needs and our perils are so unspeakably great, is it not the time of times to "get together before the Lord?" If your family altar for any reason has been destroyed or has fallen into disuse, now is the time to rebuild it and make it glorious for God and country, for home and loved ones.

Note: For the topics which suggest lessons from people with Bible names use also stories of any who seem to have the same spirit as the Bible character. For instance, in using the topic, "Abraham, the Friend of God, and Abrahams of Later Times," speak not only of Abraham Lincoln, but of others with or without Bible names, who have so lived that we believe they too might be called "Friends of God."

For the missionary topics on the Philippines, use the little book called "Jack and Janet in the Philippines."

When You Have Music Problems, Consult Us

The Music Department of our Board is a department of helpfulness—it was organized for this purpose—and hundreds of our Churches will testify to the fact that it has been of real assistance in many ways.

WE PUBLISH excellent material for use in all departments of Church activities and our publications are held in high esteem by Ministers and other workers in all denominations. We feel our own publications will more than please you.

BUT, in addition, we fill orders for everything published by others, and always at publishers' rates.

Little's Cross and Crown System

Doubles, Sunday School Attendance and Offerings

How to Use the System

Begin by presenting every scholar with the No. 0 celluloid pin. For every term of three months' un-interrupted attendance the pupil earns a reward. For the first term the No. 1 pin; for the second the No. 2 pin; for the third the No. 3 pin; for the fourth the No. 6 pin. Thirteen consecutive Sundays may be considered as three months. Pupils absent without a satisfactory excuse lose the interrupted term, but may begin a new term the next Sunday they attend, continuing to wear the pin already earned.

Each pin obtained is to be worn until the next higher grade is earned, but surrendered upon receiving the new one. The No. 6 solid gold pin is presented outright, and with it a handsome lithographed certificate, 9x11 inches, with seal and ribbon attached (for framing). For each additional reward earned another seal and ribbon is attached. These certificates are free to schools. Send for sample.

The System pays for itself by increased offerings as evidenced by numerous testimonials, and may be started successfully at any time. This has been repeatedly proven by actual results.

Doing Business with a Yard Stick

Stephen Girard—that hard-fisted, hard-hitting, straight-thinking merchant prince, banker, ship owner, who still wields a considerable influence through the powerful banking institutions and charities that bear his name, never did business on sentiment.

He was not moved by any appeal save that of security for his investments and property. Stephen Girard transacted his business with a yard stick.

It is significant that this man, the first of our great National business men, should insure all his property in the North America.

And it was the confidence of these early leaders, who won during the days when nothing was certain, that has ever since been an Inspiration and an Incentive.
